Board of general proprietors of the eastern division of New Jersey.

A bill in the chancery of New-Jersey ...

1747. (Card 3)
A presentation of the case of the East Jersey proprietors against the accounts of lands in the town of Elizabeth deriving their title from grants made by Governor Nicolls about eighty years earlier. The document was probably prepared by James Alexander. A reply was published in 1752, with title: "An answer to A bill in the chancery of New-Jersey".
The case never came to a decision, being thus settled practically in favor of the holders of Ball's Head of Elizabeth, New Jersey, 1808.
"The New-York gazette"-revived in the Weekly post-boy ... March 7,

Board of visitors of the National museum and the Botanic gardens, Dublin.

In the "Dublin science and art museum act" of 1877, when the Irish museum was transferred from the Royal Dublin society to the government, provision was made for a Board of visitors to aid in the administration of the museum and of the Botanic gardens.
By the formal agreement of March 1, 1881, between the Department of science and art (Gr. Brit.) the Commissioners of public works in Ireland, and the Royal Dublin society, the Board was to consist of twelve members: four members appointed by the state; three, by the Royal Irish academy; five, by the Royal Dublin society.
The first meeting of the board was held March 4, 1881.
